Impact of Russia and Ukraine war

Management has assessed of the impact of the Russia and Ukraine war, especially in respect of going concern, the impact on revenue and asset impairment reviews. Management believes that any impact of the Russia and Ukraine war has already been taken into consideration in the amounts and information presented in the financial statements, and in cashflow forecasts prepared for impairment review and going concern purposes, and there is therefore no further impact to disclose.

Impact of conflict in the Middle East

We are not able to determine the impact on the company of the recent conflict in the Middle East.

Global tariffs imposed by the US Government

The global tariffs imposed by the US Government are not expected to have a significant impact on the company.

Principal risks and uncertainties

The directors do not consider there to be any significant risks or uncertainties as the majority of transactions and balances are group related, with the exception of investment impairment risk, which is reviewed by management at each balance sheet date. A full impairment review of the investment in the underlying subsidiaries has been performed at the balance sheet date and no impairment has been identified as a result of this (see note 15).

Climate change represents a significant environmental challenge with the potential to impact our business operations, supply chains, and market demand. We recognize the importance of addressing climate-related risks and are committed to integrating climate considerations into our strategic planning and risk management processes.

Future developments

It is anticipated that the Company will continue to operate in its current form for the foreseeable future.

Key performance indicators

The Company's sole business is to manage the investment in the subsidiaries in which it invests, and to recharge central costs to the trading entities. For this reason, the company's directors believe that analysis using key indicators for the company is not necessary or appropriate for an understanding of the development, performance or position of the business of the company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF MEGGITT LIMITED

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Meggitt Limited (the 'company') for the year ended 30 June 2025 which comprise the statement of comprehensive income, statement of financial position, statement of changes in equity and the related notes, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 101 "Reduced Disclosure Framework" (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the financial statements of Meggitt Limited ('the company'):

- give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 30 June 2025 and of its profit for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, including Financial Reporting Standard 101 "Reduced Disclosure Framework"; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report.

We are independent of the company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the Financial Reporting Council's (the 'FRC'S') Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The directors are responsible for the other information contained within the annual report. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

Our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the course of the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether this gives rise to a material misstatement in the financial statements themselves. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

MEGGITT LIMITED

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT (CONTINUED) TO THE MEMBERS OF MEGGITT LIMITED

Responsibilities of directors

As explained more fully in the directors' responsibilities statement, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the FRC's website at: www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Extent to which the audit was considered capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below.

We considered the nature of the company's industry and its control environment and we assessed the susceptibility of the company's financial statements to material misstatement and how fraud might occur, including through discussions with the directors and discussions within our audit team.

We obtained an understanding of the legal and regulatory framework that the company operates in, and identified the key laws and regulations that:

- had a direct effect on the determination of material amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. These included UK Companies Act, pensions legislation, tax legislation; and
- do not have a direct effect on the financial statements but compliance with which may be fundamental to the company's ability to operate or to avoid a material penalty. This included employment law.

In common with all audits under ISAs (UK), we are also required to perform specific procedures to respond to the risk of management override. In addressing the risk of fraud through management override of controls, we tested the appropriateness of journal entries and other adjustments; assessed whether the judgements made in making accounting estimates are indicative of a potential bias; and evaluated the business rationale of any significant transactions that are unusual or outside the normal course of business.

In addition to the above, our procedures to respond to the risks identified included the following:

- reviewing financial statement disclosures by testing to supporting documentation to assess compliance with provisions of relevant laws and regulations described as having a direct effect on the financial statements;
- performing analytical procedures to identify any unusual or unexpected relationships that may indicate risks of material misstatement due to fraud;
- enquiring of management and in-house legal counsel concerning actual and potential litigation and claims, and instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations; and
- reading minutes of meetings of those charged with governance

There are inherent limitations in the audit procedures described above and the further removed non-compliance with laws and regulations is from the events and transactions reflected in the financial statements, the less likely we would become aware of it. Also, the risk of not detecting a material misstatement due to fraud is higher than the risk of not detecting one resulting from error, as fraud may involve deliberate concealment by, for example, forgery or intentional misrepresentations, or through collusion.

Opinions on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the strategic report and the directors' report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the strategic report and the directors' report have been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements,

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified any material misstatements in the strategic report or the directors' report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2025

1.2 Going concern

The Directors have considered going concern in preparing these financial statements.

The Company made a profit in the period of £87,084,000 (2024: £1,952,396,000). As at 30 June 2025 the Company had net assets of £454,494,000 (2024: £675,654,000) and net current liabilities of £1,711,313,000 (2024: £1,462,063,000). The Directors have considered going concern in preparing these financial statements.

The Company participates in a cash pool arrangement. Each company participating in the cash pooling arrangement has cash automatically swept to/from its account on a daily basis so that the balance reverts to zero at the end of each day. For all companies within Parker Group, cash is swept to/from Parker Hannifin EMEA S.a.r.l. and balances are interest bearing. Should the need arise, a signed letter of support, confirming ongoing support for a period of 12 months from the date of approval of these financial statements, has been obtained from the Company's ultimate parent company, Parker Hannifin Corporation.

Having received confirmation of ongoing support from the ultimate parent company for the next 12 months from the date of approval of these financial statements, and their willingness and ability to provide financial support to the Company if needed, the Directors have a reasonable expectation that the Company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Accordingly, they continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the financial statements.

1.3 Other income

The Company incurs services that are procured and paid for centrally that benefit the wider business and subsidiaries of the Company. These costs relate largely to wages and salaries for employees working in the central team as well as IT costs relating to infrastructure and licenses. These costs are then recharged across the group to the subsidiaries.

1.4 Intangible assets other than goodwill

Intangible assets, which comprise software, are recorded at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses. Amortisation is charged on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful economic lives of the assets, commencing with the date the assets are available for use, typically over periods up to five years. Residual values and useful lives are reviewed annually and adjusted if appropriate.

1.5 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. Cost includes expenditure directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset.

For right-of-use assets, cost comprises an amount equal to the initial lease liability recognised, adjusted to include any payments made for the right to use the asset, initial direct costs incurred and estimated costs for dismantling, removing and restoring the asset at the end of the lease term.

Depreciation is charged on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful economic lives of the assets, commencing with the date the assets are available for use, as follows:

|---------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Right-of-use assets | Shorter of the useful economic life of the asset and the lease term |
| Plant and equipment | 3 to 5 years                                                        |
| Motor vehicles      | 5 years                                                             |

Residual values and useful lives are reviewed annually and adjusted if appropriate. When items of property, plant and equipment are disposed, the difference between sale proceeds, net of related costs, and the carrying value of the asset is recognised in the statement of comprehensive income.

1.6 Non-current investments

Investments in subsidiaries are stated at cost less accumulated impairment losses.

1.7 Impairment of tangible and intangible assets

At each balance sheet date, the Company reviews the carrying amounts of its non-current, non-financial assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets are impaired. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of any impairment loss. Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future pre-tax cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted. If the recoverable amount of an asset or CGU is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset or CGU is reduced to its recoverable amount.

Any impairment loss is recognised immediately in the statement of comprehensive income. Where an impairment loss is no longer required, it is reversed with a corresponding credit to the statement of comprehensive income.

1.8 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand and deposits held at call with banks. Bank overdrafts are disclosed as current liabilities, within bank and other borrowings, except where the Company participates in offset arrangements with certain banks whereby cash and overdraft amounts are offset against each other.

1.9 Taxation

Current tax is based on taxable profit for the period, calculated using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. The company establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Current tax is recognised in the income statement, other comprehensive income or directly in equity depending on where the item to which they relate has been recognised.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is the tax expected to be payable or recoverable on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit, and is accounted for using the balance sheet liability method. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences and deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the tax profit nor the accounting profit.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting end date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered. Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset is realised. Deferred tax is charged or credited in the income statement, except when it relates to items charged or credited directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also dealt with in equity. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when the company has a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and the deferred tax assets and liabilities relate to taxes levied by the same tax authority.

1.10 Retirement benefits

For the Company's defined benefit scheme, pension costs are charged to the statement of comprehensive income in accordance with the advice of qualified independent actuaries. Past service credits and costs and curtailment gains and losses are recognised immediately in the statement of comprehensive income.

Retirement benefit obligations represent the difference between the fair value of the scheme assets and the present value of the scheme defined benefit obligations measured at the balance sheet date. The defined benefit obligation is measured annually by independent actuaries using the projected unit credit method. The present value of the defined benefit obligation is determined by discounting the defined benefit obligations using interest rates of high quality UK corporate bonds with terms to maturity comparable with the terms of the related defined benefit obligations. Where the assets of a scheme exceed its liabilities, the surplus recognised is restricted to the lower of this amount and the future economic benefits to which the Company has an unconditional right to receive either in the form of reduced contributions or a cash refund. Where the Company has a statutory or contractual minimum funding requirement to make contributions to a scheme in respect of past service and any such contributions are not available to the Company once paid (as a reduction in future contributions or as a refund, to which the Company has an unconditional right either during the life of the scheme or when the scheme liabilities are settled), an additional liability for such amounts is recognised.

Remeasurement gains and losses are recognised in the year in which they arise in other comprehensive income.

For defined contribution schemes, payments are recognised in the statement of comprehensive income when they fall due. The Company has no further obligations once the contributions have been paid.

1.11 Leases

A lease liability is recognised when the Company obtains control of the right - of-use asset, that is the subject of the lease. The initial lease liability recognised represents the discounted value of payments due under the lease less any incentives receivable. Where lease payments are variable, often because they are based on future inflation rates or indices, they are initially measured using the inflation rate or index value at lease inception. Typically the interest rate implicit in the Company's leases cannot be easily determined and accordingly the Group's incremental borrowing rate, for borrowings of similar amounts and maturity periods, is used to discount amounts due under the lease. The lease liability is subsequently measured using the effective interest method, with interest recognised within finance costs.

At inception, the Company evaluates whether it is reasonably certain that any option to extend a lease term will be exercised. Typically, where the initial lease term for a property used for the Company's manufacturing operations is for at least five years, the option to extend the lease term is at market rates and the right-of-use asset is not considered specialised, the Company will not assess the likelihood of the lease being extended at inception as reasonably certain. The Company continues to evaluate the likelihood of exercising such options however throughout the initial lease term. When the Company is committed to extending the lease, having considered the alternative options available and where appropriate lessor consent to the extension has been obtained, the Company will consider the option to be reasonably certain to be exercised. When an option is reasonably certain to be exercised, the right-of-use asset and lease liabilities recognised are adjusted to reflect the extended term.

Leases, which at inception have a term of less than 12 months or relate to low-value assets, are not recognised on the balance sheet. Payments made under such leases are charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

1.12 Foreign exchange

The Company's financial statements are presented in pounds sterling. Transactions in foreign currencies are recorded at exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities, denominated in foreign currencies are reported at exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Exchange differences on retranslating monetary assets and liabilities are recognised in the statement of comprehensive income.

1.13 Other receivables

Other receivables are initially recognised at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost less any impairment losses. The Company applies the IFRS 9 simplified approach to measuring expected credit losses (ECLs), which uses a lifetime expected loss allowance. For amounts owed by subsidiary undertakings, which are repayable on demand, ECLs are based on the assumption that repayment is demanded at the balance sheet date. The subsidiary undertaking's access to sufficient accessible highly liquid assets in order to repay the amounts due if demanded at the balance sheet date is assessed. The expected manner of recovery is considered when measuring ECLs.

1.14 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares are deducted from the proceeds recorded in equity.

1.15 Dividends

Interim dividends are recognised when paid to shareholders. Final dividends are recognised when approved by the shareholders.

1.16 Recognition and Measurement of Climate-Related Risks

In recognising and measuring the impacts of climate-related risks, our Company adheres to the principles set out in the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). We assess the potential financial impacts of climate change on our assets, liabilities, income, and expenditure on an ongoing basis.

2 Adoption of new and revised standards and changes in accounting policies

During the year, no new accounting standards, amendments or provisions to existing standards or interpretations became effective which had significant impact on the financial statements.

The following were amendments issued at 1 January 2025:

- IFRS 18 Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements - Replaces IAS 1 requirements on presentation

- Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments - Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7
- Annual Improvements to IFRS Accounting Standards - Volume 11
- Contracts Referencing Nature-dependent Electricity - Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7

The Company has not early adopted these and the adoption of these standards and amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the financial statements.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2025*3 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

In the application of the company's accounting policies, the directors are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amount of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised, if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

The estimates and assumptions which have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities are outlined below.

Critical accounting estimatesRetirement benefit obligations*

The liability recognised in respect of retirement benefit obligations is dependent on a number of estimates including those relating to mortality, inflation and the rate at which liabilities are discounted. External actuarial advice is taken with regard to the most appropriate assumptions to use. Further details on these estimates, and sensitivities of the retirement benefit obligations to these estimates, are disclosed in note 20.

Impairment of investments in subsidiaries

The Company conducts an annual impairment review of its investments in subsidiaries. This review aims to determine whether the carrying amount of these investments exceeds their recoverable amount, which is the higher of their fair value less costs of disposal and their value in use. For non-trading entities, the impairment review is based primarily on the net asset value of the subsidiary. For trading entities, the impairment review is based on the value in use of the subsidiary, the value in use calculations are dependent on estimates of future cash flows, long-term growth rates and appropriate discount rates to be applied to future cash flows. No impairment has been recognised in relation to these.

Critical accounting judgements

There are no critical judgements for the current period.

20 Retirement benefit surplus

The Company is the sponsoring employer of the Meggitt Pension Plan, a funded final salary defined benefit plan. Each participating company in the Meggitt Pension Plan bears employer contributions in respect of future service. No other amounts are recharged by the Company to any other participating employer. The Company has recognised the total surplus in respect of the Meggitt Pension Plan in these financial statements.

The Trustees of the plan are responsible for determining and monitoring the plan's investment strategy, the trustees are responsible under pensions legislation for preparing, maintaining and from time to time reviewing and if necessary revising a schedule of contributions showing the rates of contributions payable towards the scheme by or on behalf of the employer and the dates on or before which such contributions are to be paid. Employer contributions to the Plan in the year ending 30 June 2026 are estimated to be nil.

The expected amount for future service costs to be contributed to the Plan for the year ending 30 June 2026 is £3.7m (2025: £3.7m).

The formal rules of the scheme give the company the unconditional right to any surplus once all participants have received their benefits in full and the scheme is wound-up. Although the allocation of the surplus between the company would be decided by the scheme trustee at that time, the participating employers have agreed through their allocation policy that the final allocation would align with the reported surplus position in the company's financial statements.

The total charge to net operating expenses in respect of the defined contribution scheme in which employees of the Company participate is £503,000 (2024: £954,000).

Risks associated with the Scheme

The Scheme exposes the company to some risks, the most significant of which are:

a. Asset volatility

The DBO is calculated using a discount rate set with reference to corporate bond yields. If assets underperform this yield, this will create a deficit. The Scheme holds a significant proportion of growth assets, which, though expected to outperform corporate bonds in the long-term, create volatility and risk in the short-term. The allocation to growth assets is monitored to ensure it remains appropriate given the Scheme's long-term objectives.

b. Changes in bond yields

A decrease in corporate bond yields will increase the value placed on the Scheme's DBO for accounting purposes, although this will be offset to some extent by an increase in the value of the Scheme's bond holdings.

c. Inflation risk

The majority of the Scheme's DBO is linked to inflation, and higher inflation leads to a higher DBO (although, in most cases, caps on the level of inflationary increases are in place to protect against extreme inflation).

d. Life expectancy

The majority of the Scheme's obligations are to provide benefits for the lifetime of the member, so increases in life expectancy will result in an increase in the DBO.

e. Legislative Risk

The risk that new legislation, or clarification to existing legislation, increases the benefits due to members. Please note the results shown in this report reflect our understanding of the benefits due at the date of the report make no allowance for any potential impact on benefits of recent case law (such as the recent High Court judgment in the case of Virgin Media vs NTL Pension Trustees II Limited).

The Defined Benefit Obligation (DBO) includes benefits for current employees, former employees and current pensioners. The Plan duration is an indicator of the weighted-average time until benefit payments are made. For the Plan as a whole, the duration is around 12 years at 30 June 2024 reflecting the approximate split of the defined benefit obligation.

Changes in the present value of retirement benefit obligations are as follows:

Results can change dramatically depending on market conditions. The Defined Benefit Obligation is linked to yields on AA-rated corporate bonds, however not all of the assets are invested in AA-rated corporate bonds. Changing markets in conjunction with discount rate volatility will lead to volatility in the funded status of the pension plan and thus to volatility in the net pension asset on the company's balance sheet and in other comprehensive income (OCI). This will also lead to volatility in the pension expense in the company's income statement.

The key assumptions used for IAS 19 are: discount rate, inflation and mortality. If different assumptions were used, this could have a material effect on the results you disclose. The sensitivity of the results to these assumptions is set out below. The sensitivity information shown has been prepared using the same method used to adjust the results of the calculation of the DBO at 5 April 2024, using membership data at that date, to the balance sheet date. Please see below further details on the method used for the sensitivities.

- For the inflation sensitivity we have assumed a 0.5% reduction in both RPI and CPI inflation assumptions. For the pension increase in payment we have allowed for the caps and collars for each specific tranche.
- The life expectancy sensitivity is an estimate modelling the impact on a deferred and pensioner scheme member based on their average age weighted by liability, rather than a full calculation done at individual member level.

Impact on Defined Benefit Obligation based on the following changes:

|                   | Following a 0.50% reduction in the discount rate | Following a 0.50% reduction in the inflation assumption | Following a one year increase in life expectancy |

Funding requirements:

UK legislation requires that pension schemes are funded prudently. The last funding valuation of the Plan was carried out by a qualified actuary as at 5 April 2024 and showed a surplus of £13.7M in the Main section and a surplus of £6.9M in the Executive section. As the actuarial valuation as at 5 April 2024 is in surplus, no further deficit recovery contributions required. The employer has agreed to pay contributions to reimburse the cost of PPF or other levies incurred.

In June 2023, the UK High Court (Virgin Media Limited v NTL Pension Trustees II Limited) ruled that certain historical amendments for contracted-out defined benefit pension plans were invalid if they were not accompanied by the correct actuarial confirmation. Whilst the Court of Appeal upheld this ruling in July 2024, there remains material uncertainty in relation to the legal position and the application of the ruling. The Trustee has not conducted any detailed investigation at this point for the Plan, however the Company and the Trustee will maintain a dialogue and continue to monitor developments on this matter. Management do not expect an adjustment will be required.
