Miyoshi Electronics Corporation Home &gt; About Us

Today's society advances each and every day. Information electronic technology has advanced remarkably; new technology and new products arrive one after the other. This truly revolutionary change is occurring everywhere. In this state-of-the-art field of information electronics, we at Miyoshi meet our customers' needs and required speed by using our development, design, and manufacturing know-how that we have acquired over many years as an EMS, OEM, and ODM for various telecommunication products, custom-made boards, high-frequency modules, and sensor modules for the information telecommunication market.
